

LIFELONG TRAVEL

FALL 2026

This fall, travel with us to destinations filled with fascinating exhibits, memorable performances, delicious meals, and unique experiences. Whether you're exploring a new city, discovering local history and culture, or enjoying a live show, each trip offers something special to see and do. We'll handle the details so you can relax, explore, and enjoy the journey.

Shy38 Farm Sanctuary

Shy38 Farm Sanctuary | Thursday, September 3 | 9 am - 12 pm | $45

Shy 38 Inc. was founded in 2015, with the mission to become a Kansas Farm Sanctuary. It is now home to over 180 rescued farm animals and has partnered in developing humane curriculum programs for students. The tour will introduce us to the residents, their stories and the daily operations of a non-profit farm giving a new lease on life to a wide range of animals. Fee includes a donation to their work. Rain date: September 10. Code: 727210

The Berlin Wall: A World Divided | Tuesday, September 15 | 8:30 am - 4:30 pm | $121

For nearly 30 years, a wall cut through the heart of Berlin, a physical symbol of a world divided by the Cold War. This exhibit at Union Station includes original Berlin Wall segments and over 200 authentic artifacts that tell the human stories behind headlines, including the Berlin Airlift and Checkpoint Charlie. This is not just the story of Germany. The era shaped generations of Americans and people across the globe. An afternoon at Boulevard Beer will include lunch in the beer hall and a tour of the brewery with samples! Code: 727418

Powell Observatory

A Night Under the Stars 2 | Saturday, September 26 | 5 - 11 pm | $92

This early autumn evening starts at the Somerset Schoolhouse, a speakeasy, boutique, and café. We'll relax with snacks on the patio, then visit the Powell Observatory. Built by members of the Astronomical Society of Kansas City, the observatory has one of the largest telescopes open to the public in a five-state area. There will be time to visit the community telescopes and speak with members of the astronomical society before the public program, They Only Come Out at Night: A Tour of the Night Sky, which includes live imaging from the Ruisinger telescope shown remotely on a large screen. The program will proceed clear or cloudy, cancel in the event of rain. Code: 727152

Inspired by Artemis - St. Joseph | Thursday, October 1 | 8:30 am - 4:30 pm | $118

The historic Artemis II mission in April sparked nostalgia for some who recalled Walter Cronkite reporting the 1969 moon landing. Our tour of the Walter Cronkite Memorial will include other memories narrated by the longtime CBS anchor and native son of St. Joseph. A viewing of Hubble Vision 2 in the Bushman Planetarium will conclude the morning. Lunch at JC Wyatt will be followed by a look forward at the Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art. Our guided tour will start with new highlights from the permanent collection, then an in-depth look at contemporary artists in the current temporary exhibitions with time for specific questions and maybe a couple pieces pulled from the vault specifically for this tour. Code: 727419

Picasso: Art in Motion/Flint Hills | Thursday, October 15 | 8 am - 4:30 pm | $120

Picasso: Art in Motion

This day of beauty begins with the Pablo Picasso: Art in Motion exhibit at the Museum of Art and Light. The immersive exhibit explores the evolution of Picasso, from the Blue Period to Cubism. There will be time to visit additional galleries and enjoy lunch at Café Azul. Then an afternoon of natural beauty at the Flint Hills Discovery Center, designed to celebrate the culture and science of the tallgrass prairie through interactive exhibits and outdoor spaces. The day will end with a closer look at the Konza Prairie before returning home. Code: 727501

Unique Collections | Tuesday, October 20 | 9 am - 4:30 pm | Fee: $91

Curiosity and appreciation will drive the day as we visit three exceptional archives. At the Linda Hall Library, one of the world's foremost research libraries dedicated to fields of science, engineering, and technology, we will view the exhibit Alchemy of Knowledge, from Shakespeare to AI, and have a private rare book viewing. The Marr Sound Archives focus on the American experience as reflected in recorded sound. Our guided tour will include demonstrations of vintage equipment and highlight materials from the collection. Manuscript materials in the LaBudde Special Collection focus on music, underrepresented groups and popular culture. It's one thing to see these collections on a list. It is another to view them, crossing decades or centuries of history. Lunch at Jack Stack Barbeque is included. Code: 727500

KU McGregor Herbarium

KU Herbarium | Thursday, November 5 | 1 - 3:30 pm | $24

Ranked in the top 5% of U.S. herbaria for the size of its collection, the KU McGregor Herbarium houses approximately 454,000 specimens accumulated during the past 150 years. Our tour will focus on the Grassland Biome. We will view the specimen collection, learn about the four methods of specimen storage, and research projects that have accessed the collection. Code: 727502

The Hallelujah Girls at New Theatre | Wednesday, November 11 | 11 am - 4 pm | $75

When life throws a curveball, this group of women decides to throw one right back. Hallelujah Girls follows a circle of friends who turn an abandoned church into a day spa and rediscover their strength and the joy that comes with laughter. And along the way, one of the gals rekindles the heat of an old flame with the good-old-boy who's installing the hot tub. Filled with razor-sharp wit and heart, this feel-good comedy is about second chances, bold choices, and refusing to fade quietly into the background. Code: 727416

The Nutcracker and the Mouse King with High Tea | Sunday, December 13 | 1 - 6 pm | $126

The Nutcracker & Mouse King

Almost everyone is familiar with the traditional version of the holiday story "The Nutcracker." Far fewer are aware of the original and notably darker inspiration for this beloved ballet—E.T.A. Hoffman's 1816 story "The Nutcracker and the Mouse King." Owen/Cox Dance Group brings their highly unique, contemporary jazz adaptation of "The Nutcracker and the Mouse King" back to the Yardley Hall stage this holiday season! A traditional High Tea will follow the matinee. Code: 727431

Patsy Cline at New Theatre | Wednesday, January 20 2027 | 11 am - 4 pm | $75

Always... Patsy Cline tells the loving and joyous story of an unexpected friendship between a superstar and her biggest fan, brought to life through humor and unforgettable music. This live, concert-style show is based on a true story and features favorites such as "Crazy," "Walkin' After Midnight," and "Fall to Pieces." Code: 727417
